

Employee Benefit Plans

Ensuring your benefit plan isn't a job for you.

What You Should Expect From Your Employee Benefit Plan Advisor

An interactive information session for eligible employees to describe the details of the benefit plan and explain how it works.

Assistance in onboarding new employees to the plan, as well as ongoing support in making changes to their coverage (i.e. adding dependents, coordinating benefits, etc.).

Timely and expert answers to any questions regarding the development, implementation and administration of your plan.

Advocacy on behalf of you and your employees in the event of a claims issue or conflict with the plan provider.

Frequent analysis of your needs, to ensure your current plan is meaningful, sustainable and fairly-priced.

A comprehensive annual evaluation of your plan, including a "temperature check", analysis of claims usage and cost adjustment, as well as consideration for future adaptations.
